THE FATHER’S CHILD MINISTRY STATEMENT OF FAITH AGREEMENT

The Father’s Child Ministry is a 501 c (3) Christian organization whose vision is to see The Father’s children receive the love of the Heavenly Father. Our mission is to influence The Father’s young men and women to reach their potential through a relationship with Jesus Christ by utilizing community resources.

Statement of Faith

We believe the bible to be inspired, the only infallible, authoritative Word of God. We believe in the deity of Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death through His shed blood, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal return in power and glory.

By signing this agreement, as a volunteer in The Father’s Child Ministry, you are in agreement with FCM’s statement of faith and will abide by this statement when volunteering your time in The Father’s Child Ministry.

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY FORM

The Father's Child Ministry is in the service of helping young people reach their potential by utilizing community resources. For this reason, all volunteers, children, and guardians of children will divulge extensive personal information about themselves and their families. As The Father's Child Ministry, we respect the confidentiality of the volunteers and children's records. The professional staff of FCM will abide by the confidentiality policy explained below. Information about volunteers and children's record will only be shared among FCM professional staff. The right to confidentiality applies not only to written records, but also to video, film, pictures, or use of the volunteer or kid's name in FCM publications.

All records are the property of The Father's Child Ministry and not FCM's professional staff, volunteers and children. In order for FCM to be effective in accomplishing its mission and vision, we will need to assess information from volunteers, children, and outside sources. Records are not available for review by volunteers and children. All information is stored in a locked filing cabinet and is not to leave the office without the permission of the Executive Director.

Volunteers and children will be provided a copy for review of this confidentiality statement. All volunteers and children shall sign this statement agreeing that he/she has read and understands FCM's policy on confidentiality.

Confidentiality Requirements

Information will be released to other individuals or organizations only upon presentation of an authorized "consent to release information" form appropriately signed by the parent (and/or child, if the child has reached the age of 18) or volunteer. Identifying information regarding a child or volunteer may be used in FCM's publications or promotional materials if the child or volunteer has given permission. If confidential information is needed from sources such as therapists, counseling centers or other agencies which the volunteer, child, or parent has served in or been served by, the staff shall obtain an authorization for the request and release of the information signed by the parent or volunteer.

Information will be provided to law enforcement officials or the courts to a valid and enforceable subpoena. FCM will provide copies of its files rather than the original to satisfy the subpoena. A valid search warrant allows immediate access to FCM's files.

Information will be provided to FCM's legal counsel in the event of litigation or potential litigation involving the ministry. This information is considered confidential.

Information about a potential volunteer may be shared with the child and his/her parent the following things: the volunteer's age, sex, race, interests and hobbies. Information about a potential child may be shared with the volunteer the following things: the child's age, sex, race, interests and hobbies.

State law mandates that suspected child abuse be reported to the appropriate authorities. All staff is responsible for staying abreast of such reporting requirements and shall comply with mandated procedures.

If a staff person of FCM receives information indicating that a volunteer or child may be dangerous to himself or herself or others, then the necessary steps will be taken to protect The Father's Child Ministry and its individuals.

Members of the Board of Directors have access to a child and volunteer files only upon authorization by formal motion of the Board of Directors. The motion shall state who shall be authorized to review records, the specific purpose for such review, and the period of time during which access shall be granted. Members shall be required to sign and comply with FCM's policies on confidentiality and may use the information only for purposes stated by the approved action of the Board of Directors. Board members found to have violated confidentiality policies are subject to removal from the Board.

I HAVE READ AND I UNDERSTAND THE ABOVE DOCUMENT, WHICH STATES THE FATHER'S CHILD MINISTRY'S POLICY WITH RESPECT TO CONFIDENTIALTY OF VOLUNTEERS AND CHILDREN RECORDS. I AGREE TO ABIDE BY THE CONDITIONS SET FORTH.
